

Daniele Zamboni (Milan, 1959)

A graduate of Economics and Business from Bocconi University of Milan, he is enrolled in the Register of Independent Auditors. He started working at Ernst & Young in 1985. He joined the partnership in 1999 and, in the FSO (Financial Services Organization) sector, he held the position of Person in charge of the audit of the financial statements of Italian and international banks, insurance companies and asset management companies. He also carried out due diligence activities for acquisition transactions and the issue of fairness opinions in relation to capital increases and mergers. In the FSO sector, he also held the position of Head of the Assurance Division from 2005 to 2010, and Head of the Business Development Division from 2013 to 2016. In 2014, he coordinated the activities - performed jointly with the Bank of Italy - connected to the Comprehensive Assessment, specifically with reference to the Asset Quality Review. Until 2016, he was responsible for ISAE 3402 certification at Ernst & Young, in addition to being a member of Ernst & Young's FSO EMEIA (Europe-Middle East-India-Africa) Supervisory Partner Forum and a Board Director of Reconta Ernst & Young. He has been a freelance professional since 2016. He has been a Board Director of Intesa Sanpaolo since 2016.

May 2019