

Fabrizio Mosca (Turin, 1968)

A graduate in Economics from the University of Turin, he received a PhD in Business Economics from Bocconi University of Milan. He is currently an Associate Professor of Economics and Business Management at the Department of Management of the University of Turin. He has been a lecturer in the Master's course in Business Administration at the School of Economics of the University of Turin and at the School of Business Administration of Turin. He has also been a lecturer of the II Sole 24 Ore Master's course and for the Master in European Business (MEB) at the European School of Management – EAP Europe. He has been a member of the Scientific Committee of various University Master's courses, the lead lecturer of the Marketing and Business Strategies course at the University and the School of Business Administration of Turin, and a visiting professor at several foreign universities.

He is a Chartered Accountant, Independent Auditor and Court-Appointed Expert. In addition to university teaching, his professional work is focused on corporate advisory services, business valuation, M&A and tax advice for Italian and multinational companies and groups. He is a founding partner of Studio SGVM and has held positions as a member of the board of statutory auditors, independent auditor and independent director at several companies, including TRW Automotive Holding Italia and TRW Automotive Italia (ZF Group).

He is currently Deputy Chairman of Mecplast, Board Director of the Piedmont Foundation for Oncology and Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors of Aste Bolaffi and Bolaffi Metalli Preziosi.

May 2019