

Premio Famiglia Lavoro (Family and Work award) 2010

Intesa Sanpaolo is among the winners of the third edition of Premio Famiglia Lavoro (Family and Work award).

The competition, organized by the Lombardy Region and ALTIS (High School of Business and Society at the Catholic University), aims to highlight the most interesting work-family reconciliation programs in the region.

The bank has received the highest award in the category "Best Integrated System of Conciliation", thanks to the multiplicity of institutions, services, projects and initiatives set up with the aim of raising the level of welfare and improve the quality of life of its employees and their families.

The award ceremony was held in Milan Friday, April 15.

18/4/2011