

First annual report on the "Economic relations between Italy and Mediterranean Area"

SRM- Study and Research for the South of Italy, research center connected to the Intesa Sanpaolo Group, presented the Annual Report 2011 on "Economic relations between Italy and the Mediterranean Area"; the event was held in Naples on December 2, 2011.

The report organises and develops the main research papers produced by the Permanent Observatory on the Economic Relations between Italy and the Mediterranean area. Part one, entitled "Economy, business, and trade dynamics", draws a macroeconomic picture of the MENA region, and offers a detailed analysis of Italian trade with the region. Part two, "Financial flows: Sovereign Wealth Funds and migrant worker remittances", examines the aspects of capital flows existing and entering Italy. Part three, "Infrastructures in the Mediterranean: maritime transport, logistics, and energy networks" analyses maritime traffic flows, port and port hinterland systems and new energy networks and corridors.

The first Annual Report is available for download - www.srm-med.com