

AIFIn - Banca e Territorio Award, Intesa Sanpaolo rewarded once again for its social and environmental commitment

As part of the 2012 edition of the Banca e Territorio Award, established by AIFIn (Italian Association of Financial Innovation), Intesa Sanpaolo has once again stood out for its commitment to social and environmental responsibility.

PREMIO

BANCA E TERRITORIO

In the category “Iniziative a tutela e sostegno dell’ambiente” (Initiatives to protect and support the environment) the project “The first nearly 0 energy branch” came first, while “OFF – Officine formative” was ranked second in the category “Iniziative a sostegno dell’educazione, istruzione e formazione” (“Initiatives to support education and training”). Thanks to these results, Intesa Sanpaolo reached third place in the Special Award “Banca territoriale dell’anno” (Regional Bank of the year)

The prize, which aims to promote the theme of Corporate Social Responsibility in the banking sector, was awarded during the conference “Banche Territoriali 2012: strategie, innovazione, responsabilità sociale d’impresa” (Regional Banks: strategy, innovation, corporate social responsibility), which was held in Milan on October 9, 2012.

October 10, 2012